

Vikki Dorsey

Senior Consultant

Vikki is frequently sought out for her leadership capability, coaching skills, training and development solutions, communication skills, management experience, and her ability to work towards productive solutions. With deep respect for the business world, she helps business leaders see new possibilities to achieve their goals.

After more than twenty years' experience working in corporate America, Vikki transitioned into her private practice of leadership and management development as a consultant and coach. Her areas of expertise include executive team effectiveness, strategy alignment, succession planning and leadership development. She works with companies of all sizes in diverse industries and cultures as both an organization development consultant and executive coach. She is a skilled and engaging speaker. Vikki is also experienced at assisting executive teams in creating clear strategic plans, creating conditions to effectively work together to achieve goals and aligning their entire organization to implement those strategies.

Vikki has a Master of Science degree in Organizational Development from Pepperdine University in the prestigious Graziadio Business School. She obtained a Bachelor of Arts Degree with a double major in Psychology and Comparative Cultures from the University of California, Irvine. She also has a Certificate in Servant Leadership from Gonzaga University's graduate program in Organizational Leadership and a Certificate in Evidenced Based Coaching from the Fielding Graduate University. Vikki is an ICF certified ACC coach.

Vikki currently sits on the Executive Board at Pepperdine's Graziadio Business School's Center for Women in Leadership.
