

Cheryle Mauer

Cheryle Maurer is a senior consultant with Cascade Leadership Partners and a longtime organizational development consultant with more than 25 years of demonstrated experience in strategic practice, organizational development, change management, facilitation, project management, and instructional design.

She has worked on a number of acquisition-based projects that allowed her to conduct thorough needs assessment across multiple stakeholder groups, consult on strategy development, collaborate with subject matter experts on training design, develop communication strategy for internal and external audiences, and deploy virtual and in-person training globally.

Cheryle uses innovation, creativity and an interactive style to facilitate. She has specialized expertise in the field of facilitation as a Certified Master Facilitator™ (CMF). The title Certified Master Facilitator™ is a mark of excellence in facilitation. This advanced knowledge and skill allows her to lead teams through challenging situations, conflict, and uncertainty while driving for high-quality results.

Cheryle's instructional design and facilitation expertise has been recognized by Society for Emerging and Advanced Facilitators (formerly known as Southeast Association of Facilitators) on two occasions for facilitation impact within two specific clients:

- Bobby Dodd Institute, an Atlanta-based non-profit – Silver award
- AutoTrader.com, an Atlanta-based organization – Gold award

Cheryle has worked with clients across all sectors, including US Department of Defense, US Special Operations Command (USSOCOM – strategy and innovation division), Nevada Water Reclamation – Lahontan Basin Administration, HCA Healthcare, IPC (Global Association for Electronics Manufacturing), Cisco Systems, The Coca-Cola Company, Home Depot, Gwinnett Chamber of Commerce and Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. Cheryle excels at interacting with individuals at all levels of organizations where her focus is to assess and support sustainable change.

Cheryle is a proud mom of adult twins and continues to seek adventure through travel in her spare time.
